

Cindy Silvers Carter

New Braunfels; 830-608-0244; artistladycin@gmail.com

Cindy is a full time painter/artist working in oils. She paints a range of subjects and sizes from scenes around Europe and the USA. Her range consists of architectural, portraits, landscapes, still life and impressionistic canvasses. She incorporates bright colors in her paintings as much as possible. Painting San Antonio scenes is one of her favorite formats from the River walk to the Alamo to the historical missions. There is so much history involved in painting these scenes.

Cindy has taken workshops & classes at the Mc Nay in San Antonio, received training and graduated from Texas State in Studio Art. Her portfolio includes a number of paintings done during her travels in France, Germany, England, Italy & Greece. In addition to being a member of the River Art Group, she is also a member of New Braunfels Art League. Cindy displays in Dallas and Grapevine. Her awards include a number of 1st and 2nd places throughout Texas and Europe.

"England in Winter"