

Lydia Evans – Oil - Acrylic - Watercolor

Art has always fascinated me. From an early age I received encouragement from my teachers and family. I often took art classes in my home town, San Antonio. Then at age ten, I won my first art contest thru a local newspaper competition.

Later I studied drawing & painting in college where I enjoyed trying new medias and techniques. I also studied watercolor under Carol Hartman and oil painting under Al Slaven in Texas. Recently I began studying portrait painting under John Martinez.

Creativity is God's gift to me. I especially like to paint animals, landscapes & florals. Sometimes I just like to paint something abstract, colorful and funky. I don't take art too seriously and it remains a joy for me.

I am a member of the Trinity Baptist Art League, the Saint Vincent De Paul Art Group & the River Art Group Gallery-418 La Villita Street, San Antonio, Texas.
