Born and raised in Houston, I received a Bachelor of Arts in History from the University of Houston. After spending my working years in the Houston insurance industry, I fulfilled a dream and relocated to the Texas Hill Country in Kerrville. Living among the beauty of nature and wildlife rekindled my love of art. I paint in oil and have taken a number of workshops from well-known artists Matt Smith, Bob Roehm, Kathryn Stats, Jill Carver, Nancy Medina and Ron Rencher and have studied under Charlotte Curry. Inspired by a love of nature, I love painting the beauty of the Texas landscapes with its hills, rivers and streams, plants and wildlife while trying to catch the various colors, light and shadows. My work includes landscapes, florals and still lifes. I am a member of the Kerrville Art Club, Die Kunstler and the River Art Gallery in San Antonio. My work has been awarded in several juried shows.
