Elaine likes to use paintings to express life's simple pleasures. She hopes her paintings can stroke an emotional cord in the viewer's eye. Bring someone a moment of reflection that this is a beautiful world we lived in.

Elaine was a Financial Consultant in her previous career. She took art lessons from many established artists, such as Gean Grastorf, Michael Schlicting, Vie Dunn Harr, Karen McCauley and Ric Dentinger. Her preferred medium is Watercolor and Acrylics. She also studied wide selections of art books and videos. She has done commissioned works. Her artworks had been in private collections. She was a member in San Antonio Watercolor Group. Currently she serves on the board in Trinity Art League and is a member of River Art Group Gallery.
